Biography

Gordon Marshall became the ninth President of Wheelock College in 1973. Marshall was a native of Yonkers, N.Y. He held a B.A. from Princeton University and an M.B.A and D.B.A. from Harvard University. Prior to his appointment at Wheelock, Marshall served as Director of Studies at IMEDE Management Development Institute in Lausanne, Switzerland, and as an administrator and faculty member at Harvard Business School. During Marshall's ten year tenure, Wheelock saw the addition of new undergraduate majors in Special Education and Children in Hospitals, the establishment of a Continuing Education Program and the Center for Parenting Studies, and the beginning of a major building renovation program. Marshall left Wheelock College in 1983. In recognition of his service and dedication to the College, the Board of Trustees established the Gordon L. Marshall Fund for Faculty and Research Development.
